

BICC 2017 Tournaments and Block Play

The 2017 season will officially begin with the Bill Tillmann Cup, Doubles (partners will be assigned), Bisque (handicapped), 14 point, Alternate Shot, Time-Limited (45min). Tournament to be held Saturday, May 20th. This one-day event is a perfect way to start the season, and a great opportunity for new players to participate in match play. For this event players sign up as individuals and the tournament director pairs a high bisque player with a lower bisque player for your team. Contact Rob McCrea, mccrea.architect@icloud.com to sign up by Sunday, May 14th. Limited to 24 players. Open to all Full and Social members. Entry fee $10/player.

Rules

Players are expected to play all scheduled games in their block for both rounds. Scores for all games should be recorded accurately on the results sheets posted in the shed. All players are encouraged to schedule games, however ultimately it is the responsibility of the player listed first in the draw to call opponents.

A reminder - full membership for each individual is required to be eligible for block play. All members are encouraged to participate in block play. All blocks are open to all full members regardless of skill level.

Remember to pay your annual dues.

The Tournament Committee reminds members of its mandate:

To develop and encourage the playing of croquet in the village of Bayfield; to ensure that all tournaments are open to all members; to oversee and conduct tournament play that ensures sportsmanship while advancing members skill level; to ensure that all tournament play is in accordance to the Laws of Association Croquet.

Most importantly we hope you all have FUN playing croquet!
